Staff writer

Granite City officials are willing to grant taxabatement incentives in order to persuade National Steel Corp. to build a new state-of-the-art steel processing facility here.

The Granite City Council unanimously approved a resolution Tuesday night pledging consideration of "all manner of assisting Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corp. in modernizing its present facility to meet the demands of the modern marketplace for steel products, including the adoption of tax-increment areas and financing..."

A tax increment finance (TIF) district is a special-project area in which property taxes (and in some cases; sales taxes) are frozen at existing levels. Job growth expected to continue SPRINGFIELD — As the unemployment rate in most of the Metry East continues to dive, analysts are predicting continued modest improvement for the metropolitan area's economy in 1995.

The only significant area of concern is rising interest rates.

"We saw an increase of about 30,000 jobs in the St. Louis metropolitan area in 1994 and we are projecting a further increase of about 20,000 to 25,000 jobs in 1995," said Randall Clark, a labor analystswith the Missouri Department of Employment Security in St. Louis, which tracks statistics and economic trends on both sides of the Mississippi River.

Court-ordered police hearing set

A Granite City police sergeant will get his day in court to appeal a reprimand issued more than five years ago — even though the reprimand is no longer in the officer's file.

The Granite City Board of Fire and Police Commissioners has scheduled a hearing for March 13 to consider Sgt. David Rosenburg's appeal of an oral reprimand issued in September 1989 by then-police Chief Don Knight

Baby arrives on Christmas

Madison Michelle Miller of Gramite City wasn't due to arrive on the scene until 1985, but she came early — giving her parents an unexpected Christmas gitt.

Madison was born at 12:50 p.m. Christmas Day at St. Joseph's Hospital in Kirkwood. Her parents said the time was a big surprise.

Pilot charged in crash

Madison County prosecutors want to permanently ground a 38-year-old Granite City man whose small airplane crashed into a Cottage Hills home. The Rev. Donald Jones Jr., of the 3700 block of Grand Avenue, is facing three misdemeanor charges and hefty fines after prosecutors lodged charges. Jones crashed his unlicensed Cessna 172 into the home of Frank and Freda Street on July 20, prosecutors allege. Frank Street, who was injured when the plane crashed about 9 p.m. into his home at 82 Circle Drive, is still recovering from kine surgery. His wite, Freda "Ginger" Street, was also home at the time of the crash but was uninjured.

Large field likely in election

Ward 6 Alderman Walter Milton picked up election petitions last week, leaving 2nd Ward Alderman Jim Miller as the only incumbent elected officeholder in Granite City not to indicate intentions to seek re-election.

Milton's candidacy brings to 29 the number of potential candidates who have picked up petitions to have their names placed on the April 4 ballot, where nine officers are to be elected—eight aldermen and a street superintendent.

Police raid motel

Granite City police raided a downtown motel Thursday night, making three arrests for six charges, including drug dealing, drug possession and prostitution.

The 90-minute, three-officer volunteer operation completed a month-long investigation at the Granite City Lodge at the corner of Niedringhaus Avenue and 19th Street.

Tavern on trial

Mayor will hear arguments today

Staff writer

A downtown Granite City tavern could lose its liquor license for allegedly selling alcohol to minors.

Mayor Ron Selph, the city's liquor commissioner, will hear arguments at 10:30 a.m. today on charges that Gabby's Tavern, 1800 State Greet, served alcohol to two minors on If the tavern is found guilty of that violation, Selph, as liquor commissioner, must determine what punishment is appropriate.

Clinton has image problem

TO THE EDITOR:
One problem that the President has is that he just cannot decide who he wants to be.
First he wants to be F.D.R., next he feels that he might be J.F.K. and then again he compares himself to H.S.T.
Some might wonder why he doesn't want to be himself; others do not wonder.

Drunken drivers still pose dilemma for society

following editorial is ed from the Alton Telegraph.

In recent weeks, several incidents have focused attention on how our courts handle drunken driving accidents involving fatalities.

ities.

In one of the cases, sentencing was delayed for a man nearing?

their loved ones seemed to have little value in the eyes of the court.

These very typical incidents and the very typical reactions they provoked are a clear indication that even at a time when public consciousness of drunken driving is high, society has still not reached any consensus on how to deal with offenders.

Survivors of victims lead a segment of society that argues that punishment for drunken driving should be swift and severe, particularly in cases in which innocent motorists die. Jail time for accidents that result in death does not seem extreme to people who must cope with the aftermath of those deaths.

Relatives of offenders will argue—that—prison—sentences-could cause more devastation to shead bleak situations by sheading up family units and creating even more victims, such as dependents of jailed breadwinners.

Clearly, seeking justice in the prosecution of drunken driving cases in prosecution of drunken driving cases is fraught with gut-wrenching decisions. Does a probation sentence sell victims short? Would a jail sentence wreak havog on still more lives?

Perhaps it is time to reconsider the punishment range for drunken driving in cases of
